

Insurance Premium Tax (IPT)

Exemption form

How does IPT affect your Bupa subscriptions?

Do you know that the subscriptions you pay include IPT unless you declare that you are exempt?

For the purposes of Bupa's UK health insurance and dental insurance products, you will only be exempt from paying IPT if you live in the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, as IPT is payable for all other parts of the UK.

In some cases we hold more than one address for members, so before we apply for the exemption we need confirmation that:

- you have a permanent address in the Channel Islands or Isle of Man, and
- you are normally resident at this address

Are you exempt?

If you meet the criteria above, please complete the IPT exemption declaration form below and return it to Bupa.

Please remember:

- if IPT exemption has already been applied to your registration, you must reconfirm your exemption annually at your renewal, by returning the completed form below
- IPT exemption cannot be back-dated or applied to your membership midyear, therefore you must apply for exemption when you join or renew your membership.

Please see your membership guide for details of who is providing your cover.
